Objectives:-

Holi Festival is a spring festival celebrated with much fervor in India, also known as the festival of colors or the festival of love. The festival signifies the victory of good over evil, the arrival of spring, end of winter bringing in the air the fragrance of flowers and aura of warmth and happiness.

It appears as if the nature is rejoicing, the vibrations of pious time are such that every one has the urge to make merry, to put tilak on the forehead to forget and forgive bringing in new surroundings. It is also celebrated as a thanks giving for a good harvest.

The festival lasts for two days starting on the Purnima full Moon day, falling in the month of Falgun, which is somewhere between the end of February and the middle of March. The first day is known as Holika Dahan or Chhoti Holi and the second as Rangwali Holi, Dhulandi or Dhulivandan.

Holi festival is the time of fun and frolic, eating and celebrating together the different colors of life. Sweet flowers and color adds to the sacredness of festival. It brings in the sense of togetherness, freedom and connectivity. The oneness in the hearts and warmth removes misunderstandings if any and ushers in a feeling of friendliness, love joy and bliss.
